Personal information

The information collected before you become a tenant will be used to help us provide services which meet your needs. Some of the information which we collect will be special categories of personal data (also called sensitive personal data). To ensure that you receive a consistently high standard of service we may pass relevant information to our contractors.

Our full privacy notice can be found at the end of this form. Please review this before signing your form. By signing the form, you consent to our use of your sensitive personal data as set out in the full privacy notice.

1 Consent

- 1.1 In order for us to offer you suitable accommodation, we need to know about your physical health to make sure that we do not offer accommodation which is unsuited to your needs. We therefore need to ask you for health and disability related information to make sure that we only offer you accommodation which is suitable.
- 1.2 Further, in order to ensure that the services we are providing are non-discriminatory and open and accessible to all, we need to ask you for information regarding your age, race or ethnic origin, gender and sexual orientation.
- 1.3 The categories of information listed in 1.1 and 1.2 are “special categories of personal data”. For us to use this information as we have described in the statement below, we first need to ask you for your consent to do so.
- 1.4 There is no obligation on you to provide your consent for us to use your special categories of personal data. If you do not provide your consent, we will not ask you for information about your health or disabilities but this could result in us offering you accommodation which is not suitable and impact our ability to provide you with appropriate housing.
- 1.5 Even if you provide your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawing your consent will not affect the lawfulness of our use of your information before the consent was withdrawn.
- 1.6 We aim to ensure that withdrawing your consent is as easy as providing it. Therefore, if you do wish to withdraw your consent at any time, please contact your local Sanctuary office.

- 1.7 I consent to you using the information I provide to you about my special categories of personal data for the purpose of providing me with suitable accommodation:

Privacy Statement

2 Purpose of our privacy statement

- 2.1 Under the Data Protection Act 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulation, Sanctuary Homes (Scotland) Limited is required to explain to you why we are asking for information about you, how we intend to use the information you provide to us and whether we will share this information with anyone else.

3 Who are we?

- 3.1 We are Sanctuary Homes (Scotland) Limited, a subsidiary of Sanctuary Scotland Housing Association and part of Sanctuary Group. Our registered office address is 7 Freeland Drive, Priesthill, Glasgow, G53 6PG. We trade under the 'Sanctuary Homes' brand and will be your landlord if you choose to rent a Mid-Market Rent property from us.

4 Our data protection officer

- 4.1 Our Data Protection Officer is responsible for overseeing what we do with your information and monitoring our compliance with data protection laws.
- 4.2 If you have any concerns or questions about our use of your personal data, you can contact our Data Protection Officer by writing to The Data Protection Officer, Sanctuary House, Chamber Court, Castle Street, Worcester, WR1 3ZQ or emailing data.protection@sanctuary-housing.co.uk.

5 Why are we collecting your information?

- 5.1 The information that you provide to us on the form(s) relating to your application is required by Sanctuary in order for us to assess your need for housing. Without this information, we will not be able to enter into a contract with you. Our aim is that by further understanding your individual needs, we will be able to provide an improved service.
- 5.2 If you are offered a tenancy, Sanctuary may invite you to answer some questions on your personal and financial circumstances. If you agree to provide this information it will be used to complete the Account Management Process, which will allow Sanctuary to offer tailored services related to your rent account. This is an automated process and your rights relating to this are set out at section 14.2. Sanctuary does not currently carry out any other automated decision making and we will tell you if this ever changes.

6 What information are we collecting?

- 6.1 The only information which we are collecting about you is the information which you provide to us on the Mid-Market Rent Application Form and any information you subsequently provide either verbally or in writing during the application process and, if your application is successful, during the term of your tenancy.
- 6.2 Some of the information which we collect could be special categories of personal data (also called sensitive personal data), which includes information about your health, age, race or ethnic origin, gender, disability or sexual orientation. We use this information to ensure that any offer of a tenancy made to you is for a property that is suitable for your needs. We will also use it to monitor our own performance and ensure that our services are non-discriminatory and remain open and accessible to all. By completing the form or subsequently providing us with this information verbally or in writing, you consent to our use of this information for these purposes.
- 6.3 Some of the information which we collect will also include your current and historical financial circumstances and personal circumstances for example if you are currently in employment.

7 What are we going to do with your information?

- 7.1 The information which you provide to us will be used for the following purposes:
- 7.1.1 it will be stored and used by us in accordance with this privacy statement and also in accordance with your rights under relevant legislation including the Data Protection Act 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulation;
 - 7.1.2 it will allow us to ensure that the services we provide are non-discriminatory, open and accessible to all;
 - 7.1.3 it will be collected and used fairly and openly for the purpose of establishing eligibility for, and managing, a tenancy;
 - 7.1.4 it will be used fairly and openly in providing our services to you in accordance with the contract between you and us;
 - 7.1.5 it will allow us to provide services which are tailored to your needs;
 - 7.1.6 it will be used in order to determine how we can improve our services to benefit you; and
 - 7.1.7 it will allow us to make contact with you in the most appropriate way. For example, we can provide literature in large print if you have difficulty reading smaller print; or provide documents in an alternative language if English is not your first language.
 - 7.1.8 it will be used to obtain references from your previous landlords during the last three years and to establish your financial status and ability to sustain a tenancy.
 - 7.1.9 it will be used to allocate an Account Management Profile to you for rent account management.

8 What is the legal basis for using your information?

- 8.1 In accordance with the data protection laws, we need a “legal basis” for collecting and using information about you. There are a variety of different legal basis for processing personal data which are set out in the data protection laws.

- 8.2 The lawful basis on which we rely in order to use the information which we collect about you for the purposes set out in this notice will be:
- 8.2.1 you have provided consent to our use of your information;
 - 8.2.2 using your information in this way is necessary for us to perform the contract between us and in order to take steps at the request of you prior to entering into the contract; and
 - 8.2.3 using your information is necessary for us to comply with a legal obligation to which we are subject.
- 8.3 The lawful basis on which we rely in order to use your sensitive personal data / special categories of personal data which we collect about you will be that you have provided your explicit consent to our use of your information.
- 8.4 The lawful basis on which we rely, in order to use information on your personal and financial circumstances to allocate you an Account Management Profile, will be that you have provided explicit consent to our use of your information for that purpose, so that Sanctuary can provide tailored rent management services to you to help you to manage your rent account.

9 Sharing your information

Sanctuary Group

- 9.1 Sanctuary Group is made up of a number of related companies in the Sanctuary family. We will share your information with other members of the Sanctuary Group where necessary in order to best provide the services to you in accordance with the contract between us.
- 9.2 Your information will only be accessed by other companies in the Group where it is necessary to do so in order to provide services to you in accordance with our contract. The obligations which are set out in this notice shall apply to the other members of the Group to the same extent that they apply to us.
- 9.3 For more information on which companies make up the Sanctuary Group, please go to www.sanctuary-group.co.uk

Contractors and sub-contractors

- 9.4 It may be necessary to share information about you with our partners, contractors and sub-contractors in order to provide you with the services in accordance with the contract between us. For example, we may provide your personal data and information relating to your tenancy to our selected maintenance contractors where repairs are required to be undertaken at your property. We will only share information about you which is relevant and necessary to address your individual needs. The partners, contractors and sub-contractors shall be contractually required to ensure that they adhere to the security requirements imposed by the Data Protection Act 1998 and / or the General Data Protection Regulation (as applicable).
- 9.5 Our contractors and sub-contractors will not share your information with any other parties and will only be able to use the information when completing work on behalf of us.

Regulators and other legal obligations

- 9.6 We may also be required to share your information with our regulators who are permitted access to this information by law and with other organisations where we have a legal obligation to share the information with them.

Other organisations

- 9.7 We may from time to time share your information with other organisations, such as:
- 9.7.1 utility companies so they can provide services to you and contact you in respect of utility charges;
 - 9.7.2 the police for the purpose of detection and prevention of crime; or
 - 9.7.3 organisations with a function of auditing and / or administering public funds for the purpose of detection and prevention of fraud.

10 Transferring your information abroad

- 10.1 We will not transfer the information you provide to us outside of the European Economic Area.

11 Security of your personal information

- 11.1 The information that you provide will be stored securely on our electronic systems and the form that you complete will be shredded. Our security measures and procedures reflect the seriousness with which we approach security and the value we attach to your information.
- 11.2 Only relevant members of staff will have access to the information you provide to us.

12 Can we use your information for any other purpose?

- 12.1 In limited circumstances we may use your information for a purpose other than those set out in this policy. If we intend to do so, we will provide you with information relating to that other purpose before using it for the new purpose.

13 Storing your information and deleting it

- 13.1 Should you enter into a contract with Sanctuary, we will store the personal data which you provide to us for as long as you remain a resident and for a period of six years thereafter in accordance with the provisions of our Records Management Policy. Should your application not be successful, we will store the personal data which you provide to us for a period of six months and then it will be deleted, in accordance with the provisions of our Records Management Policy.

14 Your rights

- 14.1 In relation to the information which we hold about you, you are entitled to:
- 14.1.1 ask us for access to the information;
 - 14.1.2 ask us to rectify the information where it is inaccurate or is incomplete;
 - 14.1.3 ask us to erase the information and take steps to ask others who we have shared your information with to also erase it;
 - 14.1.4 ask us to limit what we do with your information;
 - 14.1.5 object to our use of your information and ask us to stop that use;
 - 14.1.6 instruct us to provide you with the information we hold about you in a structured and commonly used format or transmit that information directly to another organisation (for example, if you want the information to be sent to another housing provider).

- 14.2 Our Account Management Process is an automated process and because of this, you are entitled to:
- 14.2.1 request human intervention in the Account Management Process (this means that you can ask for your profile to be reviewed and considered by a member of our income team rather than calculated automatically);
 - 14.2.2 ask to express your point of view about the Account Management Process; or
 - 14.2.3 challenge the Account Management Profile that has been allocated to you.
- 14.3 Our obligations to comply with the above rights are subject to certain exemptions.
- 14.4 Where we are using your information because you have provided your consent to that use, you are entitled to withdraw your consent at any time. The lawfulness of our use of your information before consent was withdrawn is not affected.
- 14.5 To exercise any of the rights referred to above, you should contact our Data Protection Officer by writing to The Data Protection Officer, Sanctuary House, Chamber Court, Castle Street, Worcester, Worcestershire, WR1 3ZQ or emailing data.protection@sanctuary-housing.co.uk.
- 14.6 You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (the "ICO") if you are not satisfied with the way we use your information. You can contact the ICO by writing to Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Guidance on Your Application Form

What do I do when I have completed my application form?

Send your completed application form to the postal address or email address at the back of this form. You can also give it to a staff member at your local housing office.

What happens next?

Once your completed application form has been received, we will assess it and check all the information you have provided. You will be contacted if we need further information from you.

Cancelling your application form

You may cancel your application for a Mid-Market Rent home at any time. You can do this by writing to our postal address or emailing Scotland.Midmarket@sanctuary-housing.co.uk

Annual Review

We will contact you every year to confirm that you still want to be registered for a Mid-Market Rent home. If you do not respond, your application will be cancelled.

Change of Circumstances

If any of your circumstances change, for example, if your employment changes, you move to another address, you change your telephone number, give birth etc, you must inform us immediately so that your details can be updated and you are given the correct priority for a home.
